A very nice cup of coffee, a very nice little chat
No daggers drawn, no shields were raised
And I'm quite happy with that

A very long walk and tube ride, two very nice little smiles
No lines were drawn or memories raised
And I forgot for a while

Chorus

Today has been a good day, there have been very few
Today has been a good day – a good day with you
Let's not over think it, let's not over talk it
I'll take today and hide it in my pocket
Hide it in my pocket, to polish and to turn
When a not very good day returns

A very nice bottle of wine, a very nice little kiss
The curtains were drawn, but no dark thoughts were raised
And one more thing's off the list

Chorus

Middle 8

Oh the battles in my mind
I'm a crusader, I'm an invader
I'm your slayer, your Darth Vader
Slicing you, dicing you, turning you to vapour
With my light sabre on high
Oh the treaties that I've signed

I'm Chamberlain in Munich, Chamberlain in Munich
Wanting peace in our time

Chamberlain in Munich, Chamberlain in Munich
Wanting peace in our time
The treaties that I've signed

Chorus
