Let Love Shine (The SMCC Version)

Music and Lyrics by Louise Calf. Andy Patterson – Guitar, Strings; Louise Calf – All Vocals; Ed Stone – Horn; Rob Skipper – Bass, Drums, Tambourine

I'm so sorry that you hate me
I took a swig as he said it straight to me
I thought I'd never break his heart
It was broken from the very start

Thing is now I've grown so fond of you
I can't leave you if you tell me right now you want me to I'd even go so far as to say
I'm in love with you in a most peculiar way

Chorus

(Smile) your laughter brings me sunshine
Baby, I'm with you right now and all that counts is this place and time
(Smile) I'm over the moon you're all mine
Come on, just let love shine

Put down your glass and take me to bed
I'll ease away what's in your head
And all the trouble that's been plaguing you
It'll be transparent, it'll be see-through

Chorus

I can read you, and I see you
As a man with whom there's no messing
I look in your eyes and I recognise
You and me what we've got is a blessing
I said, I can read you, and I see you
As a man with whom there's no messing
I look in your eyes and I recognise
You and me what we've got is a blessing

Swallow your words and give in to me
Admit I'm right to a certain degree
That's behind me and I know that right now
When you kiss me we'll get through it somehow

Chorus
