LYRIC SHEET

Major Matt Mason

*Andy Patterson – Vocals, Hammond, Guitars, Piano;
Louise Calf – Vocals; Ed Stone – Horns;
Rob Skipper – Bass, Drums; Martyn Ward – Guitar*

Sergeant Storm and Major Matt Mason
Sir Graves Ghastley and Diver Dan
Batman surfin' off Redondo Beach
Livin' in Tomorrowland

Sleepin' nights with Major Matt Mason
Lunar modules spread 'round my room
Flyin' cars with Mister George Jetson
Robots dancin' on the moon

Chorus

Callin' out to Mister George Jetson
Beam me up, I'm ready for flight.
Lookin' back, from tomorrow land
My future never looked so bright.

Sergeant Storm and Major Matt Mason
CCR blarin from my brothers van
Fireworks fired from Redondo Beach
Livin' in Tomorrowland

Vietnam and Mister Dick Nixon
Body counts on the nightly news
These silly adults from Mother Earth
Are barely keeping us amused.

Chorus

Bridge
By now, I should have had a family
By now, we should have lived on Mars
But the Major didn't know
The fall of Saigon would take my brother Joe
The Japanese would make my steel plant close
I'd shovel Columbia up my nose
And lose a bad decade with Jackie-Rose
And on and on and on it goes...

Chorus

Repeat Verse 1

Chorus
