Tommy Come Home

*Music and Lyrics by Ed Stone. Louise Calf – Backing Vocals;

Born to a man of limited taste,
Mom had style, infinite grace
Denied those years a silver spoon
Tommy singing to his own tune

Twenty one he packs his car
“off to the city, Au revoir”
The bird had flown, the nest now bare
The graceful lady said her prayers

Chorus

Tommy come home
Tommy come home
Tommy come home
Tommy come home

Started low but rising fast
A fortune Tom had soon amassed
Networks, job perks, style and flair
Cool cool cat without a care

Chorus

It's all quiet on the Tommy front
Graceful Mama losing touch
Au revoir, Auf wiedersehen
Simple 'bye' was all that came

Mail don't drop, phone don't ring,
Severed all attaching strings
Silence out on Radio Tom
Think it's time for Tom to come...

Chorus
